

Council Approves Leasing of Golf Course

Condition Results in Argument

Palm Springs officially went into the golf course business today.

But resort golfers will have to wait at least three months before they tee-off on the fairways of the city's first municipal golf course.

CITY COUNCIL members last night voted 5-2 to adopt a resolution approving a 16-year lease agreement for the 18-hole Palm Springs Golf Club course owned by Westview Development Corp. The agreement, calling for an annual rental of $62,500, went into effect today. But the city's golf course committee cautioned that the course will not be playable until about Oct. 15.

COUNCIL MEMBERS were informed that all 18 fairways are unusable because Bermuda grass planted in May failed to rise properly. But Westview agreed to pay the city $2,200 for two tons of new grass seed by Aug. 1. Negative votes in the council balloting came from Leonard Wolf who said he would only approve a "playable" golf course, and Mary Carlin, who explained that "the situation is now too confused."

"I ORIGINALLY voted for the course because the city needs one," Mrs. Carlin remarked. "But because it's all so confused now, I think we should give it back to the people and let them vote on it."

The unplayable fairway situation was brought to the fore in an informal "study session" immediately before the council's formal meeting last night.

COUNCILMAN AND golf committee member George Beebe and committee members Russ Wade and M. O. Anderson pointed out to Westview President Mort Ullman that the lease agreement called for an "immediately playable" course and asked Ullman to take steps to remedy the situation. Ullman agreed to pay for the purchase of Bermuda and rye grass seed but refused to continue maintenance of the course until the fairway grass is in order. If the seed is planted this month, the course should be ready for play Oct. 15.

COUNCILWOMAN Ruth Hardy, who later seconded Beebe's motion to adopt the resolution, insisted that it will cost the city $10,000 to rehabilitate the course and suggested that Westview "take over" seeding, labor and maintenance.

"You'd better adjourn your meeting then," Ullman replied. "Because we will not continue maintenance beyond July 1." "I'm content if they pay for the grass seed and stabilize the sand condition on the 12th fairway," Beebe said. "We've got to get the course in our hands now so we can get out and get to work on it."

ULMAN ALSO agreed to "stabilize" drifting sand, which has partially covered the 12th fairway.

The Westview president, who claimed that failure of the grass to rise was "an act of God," said his company plans to start construction on five model fairway homes within the next three weeks.

Westview plans a total of 350 homes, costing from $27,500 to $34,500, around the course. The city agreement calls for a 16-year lease with option for another 25 years of rental. The city has an option to buy, for $1,040,000, after the first three years, with all rental payments applicable to the purchase price.

Ike Says Congress Backs 'Tight' Budget But Warns on Reductions in Foreign Aid

Ben-Gurion Wins Arms Vote Today

Strong Opposition Expected to Bring His Resignation

JERUSALEM, Israel (UP) — The Israeli Knesset parliament approved Premier David Ben-Gurion's plan to sell grenade launchers to West Germany today. But Ben-Gurion's coalition government probably will fall anyhow.

The leftist Ahdut Avoda and Mapam parties, two of the four parties in his coalition, voted against the motion.

BEN-GURION HAD said that if he did not get the backing of all coalition parties, he would quit. Now that these two have voted openly against him, he was expected to resign.

The government's majority in the crucial vote was 37-45, with six abstentions.

Thus, even with a majority in the parliament, Ben-Gurion's resignation seemed certain.

THE COUNTRY appeared resigned to a break-up of the coalition that has ruled Israel for 3½ years and to the fact that Ben-Gurion probably would continue as only a caretaker premier until new elections are held in the fall. The arms debate was highly emotional. Israel has contracted to sell 250,000 Haifa-made grenade throwers to the West German army for about three million dollars. Bitterness arose at helping arm a country whose Nazis wiped out six million Jews in World War II.

West German Assembly Names Adenauer Man

BERLIN (UP) — Heinrich Lübke, 64, candidate of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democratic party, was elected president of West Germany today.

Lübke, minister of agriculture for the past six years, won on the second ballot. He received 528 votes, six more than the absolute majority needed for victory.

Lübke will take office Sept. 15, at the end of the second term of incumbent President Theodor Heuss.

Lübke was chosen by the 1,038 delegates to the West German Federal Assembly.

Hospital Gets '59 Budget Of $765,000

$100,000 Increase Not Expected To Up Tax Rate

Desert Hospital director today approved a $765,000 budget to pay for hospital operations during the 1959-60 fiscal year.

The new budget carries a $100,000 increase over last year's expenditures, but the board of directors feels that tax rates will remain the same or "may possibly drop lower."

HOSPITAL ADMINISTRATOR Robert Henwood said the budget was elevated to accommodate salary adjustments — a seven per cent salary increase for hospital employees — and anticipated increases in the cost of supplies and equipment.

However, increased hospital business, combined with expected increases in assessed property evaluation in the hospital district brought an optimistic outlook for the new tax rate.

BOARD MEMBERS feel they may even be able to drop the rate. It was pointed out that the hospital's June income was $8,000 ahead of last year.

Due to the increased operating costs, Henwood will keep a close watch on the month-to-month income, with the possibility that a "minor adjustment" might become necessary in hospital room rates. This would range from $1.50 to $1.50.

THE BOARD ALSO noted that the hospital currently employs 75 staff members. This figure will go to a maximum of 96 in the fall.

It was pointed out that on a national average, there are 2½ employees per hospital bed. There are less than two for each of Desert Hospital's 64 beds.

But, hospital directors feel, "the quality of Desert Hospital service makes up for the difference."

Flood Destroys Colombian Town; No One Escapes

TBAGUE, Colombia — (UP) — A sudden flood struck the mountain village of Junta early Tuesday while its inhabitants slept, and killed every person and animal there.

Only today was the completeness of the disaster becoming known. Authorities said 80 bodies had been recovered and that helicopters were trying to find other tracers of the 150 persons.

THE FULL CASUALTY toll may never be known. The flood caused by heavy rains struck at 2:30 a.m. with devastating swiftness and swept entire families and their livestock down the Comeima River.

Almost no trace of Junta remained. Although the village is only eight miles from this city of 130,000, the bodies of men, women, children, dogs, cats and cattle lay in eerie silence for nearly 10 hours before the first word of the catastrophe began to trickle in.

Storms in Midwest

East Has Hot, Humid Weather

United Press International
The Atlantic Seaboard broiled today in a persistent, early-summer heat wave, and violent thunderstorms hit wide sections of the Midwest and Southeast.

The durable heat wave and damaging storms took a mounting toll of lives. At least eight deaths had been attributed to the weather since the hot weather gripped the eastern half of the nation last week end.

A CONSTRUCTION worker died of "sunstroke" Tuesday on a job at Irwin, Pa., and a 10-year-old little League baseball player was killed by a lightning bolt in an Indianapolis, Ind., sandlot. Six other deaths were blamed on the weather — two in New

45-DAY COMMUNITY CHEST CAMPAIGN TO START OCT. 15

A concerted, 45-day campaign to answer the financial needs of Palm Springs' charities has been programmed with an official starting date slated "no later than Oct. 15."

Lester Selig, chairman of the Village's Community Chest organization, said here today that the campaign would "probably be complete by Nov. 30."

SELIG DETAILED his initial planning for the campaign here with the information that the "working organization" for the drive will be "ready to go" by the mid-October date. Approximately 12 citizens — "a representative group, people from every walk of life" — are now being aligned for the campaign here.

The working — or non-working — philosophy of a united campaign that would satisfy all charities and other campaigns came in for mild chastisement from Selig.

"IT DOESN'T MAKE any difference whether it's Palm Springs or New York or Chicago or wherever," Selig said. "If people feel that all of the fund-raising is going to be wrapped up in one drive, they're simply mistaken."

He pointed to such campaigns as the heart, cancer, muscular dystrophy and other health drives that have consistently refused to join any united charity campaign.

"IN PALM SPRINGS," he said, "we feel that the community should come first."

The Community Chest drive here will seek to raise funds for the Boys Club, Youth Center, Welfare and Friendly Aid Society, Boy and Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, Safety Council and Desert Museum.

"The average guy can't afford to spread his charities all over the map," Selig explained. "But he can afford to recognize his responsibility to the community."

James Kopecky Succumbs to Heart Attack

Word was received here today of the death of James Kopecky, owner of the Fontenell Apartments, 232-238 Avenida Ortega, and frequent visitor and resident here for the past 20 years.

Kopecky succumbed to a heart attack Saturday while vacationing in Calgary, Canada.

He was the original owner of the Truck Rental Corporation in San Diego, and had owned the Fontenell Apartments here for three years.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Frances Kopecky; two sons, Kenneth and Gene Kopecky, both of San Diego; four grandchildren, and seven sisters and one brother, all of Omaha, Neb.

The remains will be shipped to San Diego, where tentative funeral arrangements have been made for Friday or Saturday at the Good Body Ivy Chapel.

COME BACK, BOB: POLICE HAVE YOUR DRESSER DRAWER

Palm Springs police today invited Bob Small, of San Bernardino, to drop into the police station and claim his dresser drawer.

Police officers found the drawer, loaded with men's jewelry and credit card receipts, lying in the middle of the Chino Drive - Palm Canyon Drive intersection at 4 a.m. today.

responsibility to the community."

SOME OF THAT responsibility has already been given advance recognition of such organizations as the Chamber of Commerce, the communities civic, fraternal and social organizations and press and radio, he said.

"The area's golf courses have also indicated that they will cooperate fully with our campaign here," Selig said. "I found out why they're calling the town the 'Winter Golf Capital of the World.'"

SELIG SAID the indication that support would be available had created "a big boost for we who are planning this campaign."

"An English philosopher once said that 'Benevolence is the distinguishing characteristic of man. Embodied in his conduct it is called the path of duty.'"

"We feel sure that the citizens of Palm Springs will fully recognize the care of the needs of their community."

However, Desert Hospital Director Robert Henwood cautioned that only those persons who registered during last month's inoculations will be eligible for this series of polio vaccine shots.

HENWOOD SAID that anyone seeking a vaccination without a registration card "will be turned away."

The free polio shots will be offered from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Debt Ceiling Indicates 'Eye For Economy'

Eisenhower Warns Foreign Military Aid at 'Minimum'

WASHINGTON — (UP) — President Eisenhower said today he believed Congress is swinging behind his goal of a balanced budget.

The chief executive told a sweltering news conference that the action of Congress in raising the permanent debt ceiling to only 285 billion dollars—about the size of the present debt—was evidence that it expected federal spending to pull into line with receipts during the new fiscal year beginning today.

THE PRESIDENT at the same time issued an implied warning against the congressional efforts to cut his request for $1,600,000,000 in military aid for foreign countries.

Eisenhower said the Joint Chiefs of Staff had informed him that the administration figure was the barest minimum required for foreign military aid, and that a larger amount would be necessary in fiscal 1961.

OTHER NEWS highlights at his conference:

—He stuck to his position that a summit meeting would not be initiated until Russia proves by deed or by agreement to a fruitful agenda that the heads of state can negotiate together profitably.

—He expected inflation to be one of the main political issues in the national political campaigns next year, but he disclaimed any knowledge of a purported secret government forecast that the general price index is expected to go up 3 per cent next year.

—The President declined to interfere with the art exhibit arranged for the American Exhibition in Moscow even though some of the artists were under investigation today by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

—He said he had no plans at the moment to go directly to the people about the fiscal situation facing the country at the start of the new fiscal year. His party leaders had urged that he speak out publicly in the immediate future in behalf of his budgetary program before Congress.

CITY EMPLOYEES TO ENJOY HOLIDAY ON FRIDAY, JULY 3

Mayor Frank Bogert today proclaimed Friday — the day before Independence Day — as a holiday for city employees.

Mayor Bogert's proclamation fell in line with proclamations from President Eisenhower and Gov. Edmund G. Brown, marking July 3 as a holiday for federal and state employees.

These will be strictly second-ary inoculations," Henwood said. "We will not administer first shots, third shots or booster shots."

HENWOOD ADDED that persons falling in these latter categories should go to their private physicians for further inoculations.

This free vaccination series — a contribution may be given — was made possible through the county foundation from March of Dimes funds.

21 Public Schools Closed by Action Of County Board

FARMVILLE, Va. (UPI) — The 21 public schools of rural Prince Edward County closed officially today in the most drastic move taken by a southern locality to avoid the effects of an integration decree.

The schools in effect closed indefinitely when the school term ended early in June but the closing became formal today when the county began operating under its new budget.

THE SCHOOL closures and public education for more than 1,600 Negro students and 1,300 whites in the "southside" Virginia county, a defendant in the Supreme Court's historic 1954 desegregation ruling. The action puts 70 white and 70 Negro teachers out of work.

The county Board of Supervisors voted a month ago to close the schools in defiance of an integration order handed down by the Fourth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, which canceled a seven-year integration delay granted by Federal Judge Sterling Hutcheson of Richmond.

THE SUPERVISORS made their action final last Friday by adopting a budget for the fiscal year starting today with no money included for education. The same day, the Supreme Court refused a petition by the county school board asking a delay of the integration order pending a full appeal.

The supervisors, at odds with the school board which considered the shutdowns too severe, refused even to wait for the Supreme Court's ruling before adopting the budget.

TWO TRY TO BEAT NEW CIGARET TAX: ONE ILLEGALLY

An 18-year-old husband who apparently tried to beat tomorrow's three-cent increase on cigarettes today faced a charge of burglary. Reason for the charge — three cartons of cigarettes allegedly taken from a private auto and found in the possession of Frank James Johnson, 18, 179 East Andreas Road.

Detective Neal Green said the cigarettes were taken from a car belonging to Carl Gumpman, of 68-333 East Ramon Road.

What was Gumpman doing with three cartons of smokes? He was trying to beat the cigarette tax increase, naturally.

Frequent visitors to the Sun Dial Apartments, Dr. Luther Jackson, who is doing research, and Dr. Clifton Davenport, Jr., a surgeon of Santa Monica, had as their guests this weekend Dr. Frank Rucker and Dr. Wolfgang Smith of West Berlin, who have been visiting in this country for the past four months. Domingo Costa Is Stagecoach Driver in Hawaii

Special to The Desert Sun HONOLULU, T. H. — Domingo Costa, of Palm Springs, a full-blooded Mission Indian, has become the first stagecoach driver of this tropical isle.

Costa arrived here early in June with 10 light draft horses and two stagecoaches which are to be used in a run from the Waimea Falls parking area to property owned near the falls by William Lacy, Jr.

A FORMER STUNT rider and stagecoach driver in films, Costa has also doubled for such as Tom Mix, Buck Jones and Gene Autry. The coaches that the 70-year-old Palm Springs Indian will drive were built in the 1880s by the firm of Abbott and Downing of Concord, N. H., and — according to Lacy — have seen much service in the West in their lifetimes.

THE LACY RANCH, located on Oahu's windward side, has been accessible only to hikers. Introduction of the stage line is expected to open up the Lacy property and land owned by others in the area. Lacy has said that should demand warrant it, he will open a dude ranch on the property.

If he does, Costa will need help. He now drives three round trips each week, alternating the two coaches.

Second Mistrial Called by Judge

A second mistrial in the assault with a deadly weapon case against Desert Hot Springs cook Edward Todd was called here yesterday by Justice Court Judge Eugene Theriault.

Todd's defense charged that assistant district attorney Taylor Nugent had made "derogatory remarks" in questioning the defendant and Judge Theriault upheld the mistrial request.

The cook, who is charged with chasing County Health Inspector John Norman Harrison out of the kitchen of a restaurant in Desert Hot Springs on Feb. 25, 1959, won a request for a mistrial in similar circumstances in April.

A new trial has been scheduled for Aug. 24, 1959.

4-POINT PROGRAM PLANNED TO STOP OBSCENITY RACKET

(Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a current series of articles published in the public interest on the growing menace of obscene mail, and what can be done about it.)

A four-fold program of action by the United States Post Office Department, aimed at stamping out the giant mail order obscenity racket, was reported here today by Postmaster Merritt Williams.

Under the leadership of Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, he said, local postal officials throughout the country are cooperating in carrying out a highly intensified drive against this "vicious misuse of the mails."

THE POST OFFICE program is:

1. To draw maximum public attention to the menace of this racket.
2. To urge parents to help apprehend the mailers of filth to their children.
3. To help mobilize community support behind adequate law enforcement of local ordinance or state laws when these purveyors are apprehended and brought to court.
4. To rally public opinion behind new and stiffer legislation on obscenity.

COUPLED WITH this program for gaining public and legislative cooperation, the Post Office is greatly enlarging its efforts to apprehend mailers of obscene materials and, wherever possible, to bar their use of the mails or bring about their prosecution.

Postmaster Williams reported that highly encouraging progress has been made in bringing public attention to the growing menace of the obscenity racket.

POSTMASTER GENERAL Summerfield has expressed deep gratification for the interest that newspaper publishers and editors, and leaders of national organizations and civic groups, have shown in advising parents and the public generally of the growing mail order obscenity menace and telling them how they can help eliminate it.

Williams stated that parents can give specific and much needed assistance by reporting immediately to the local postmaster any receipt of obscene or pornographic literature addressed to their children. He stressed the importance of saving both the material and the envelope and of either bringing these items to the postmaster's office or mailing them to him.

THIS COOPERATION by parents, he emphasized, is essential. "Since the Post Office itself never opens first class mail, we must depend upon the citizens into whose homes pornographic material is sent to provide the information that will enable us to apprehend the senders."

He also pointed out that the number and nature of public complaints may bear importantly on the decisions of prosecutors and courts, and the Post Office consequently is anxious to receive the greatest possible number of complaints involving any single mailer of pornographic materials.

UNDER A FEDERAL law passed by the Congress and signed by President Eisenhower last year, snail dealers can now be prosecuted in the communities where their mailed obscenity is received.

"It is especially important, therefore," he said, "that the citizens of any community insist upon adequate law enforcement of local ordinances and state laws which allow the affixing of maximum jail sentences and fines upon conviction."

SUMMERFIELD IS cooperating closely with the Congress, he said, and members of Congress have shown great concern over the mail order obscenity problem. A House Post Office subcommittee is currently studying the problem with an eye to recommendations for more effective federal legislation.

PUC to Decide Price of Rancho Ramon Company

THOUSAND PALMS — Sale of the Rancho Ramon Water Company to the Coachella Valley County Water District will be negotiated before the California Public Utilities Commission in San Francisco at 10 a.m., July 15, it was learned here today.

A joint application, filed by the two utility firms, has been assigned before commissioners and examiners of the PUC for that date.

THE APPLICATION asks that the PUC, as a disinterested party, fix the "just compensation" to be paid to the Rancho Ramon Water Company for land, property and rights.

The petition, regarded as a "first class petition" explains that:

"COACHELLA VALLEY Water District intends to acquire all of the utility plant of the Rancho Ramon Water Company now utilized for water production, storage and distribution in the County of Riverside . . ." and sets forth in detail those items.

The application for the adjudication was signed by S. I. Robinson, president of the Rancho Ramon Water Company, and by Leon Kennedy, president of the Coachella Valley County Water District.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes to be wrong.

Public Gratified By Progress Towards Desert Junior College

One of the most satisfying of all of the many important development projects now under way in the Desert Empire from a public viewpoint is the first year progress being made towards the establishment of the new Desert Junior College.

An undertaking of this nature and scope usually requires from three to four years to complete measuring from the time of the district election favoring formation until organization and construction is finished and students actually enter the new classrooms.

With a major part of the time consuming preliminaries already decided and most of the organizational procedures well under way, it now appears likely that Desert Junior College will open its doors well within the minimum time schedule.

Due to the fortuitous timing of the special elections, rapid organization of the Board of Trustees and submission of a budget, tax funds are now becoming available as needed to carry the project forward without delay in each of its several important phases.

The original administrative operations are functioning smoothly, the architectural committee has been selected, and the most difficult and exacting problem of site selection is nearing a satisfactory solution.

It is gratifying to all residents of the district to note that the recent report of the State committee singled out for highest recommendation four sites within the area midway between Indio and Palm Springs for location of the College as promised before submission of the issue to the voters. While the final determination will rest on comparative details such as price and other individual factors pertaining to each separate piece of property, the ultimate choice of any one of the four in the sector between Indian Wells and Thunderbird area will be acceptable to the people and provide an excellent location for the fine new institution.

Desert dwellers will watch with continuing interest, pleasure and a feeling of deep-down pride as the campus site is secured and the walls rise forming the "halls of learning" to fulfill a long cherished dream of providing higher education for our youth right here in the heart of the Desert Empire.

All join sincerely in wishing continued good speed and every success to the new Desert Junior College.

Ike in the Homestretch--2

WASHINGTON, D. C. — In another 20 months or less it'll be easy to look back on President Eisenhower's stretch run and to note that he moved much like a stake horse than (as was predicted) like a lame duck.

But to wait till Eisenhower has come to the end of his term, or worse, to the end of his life, is not necessary. If there is praise to be given, now is the best time. The President has certainly served long enough, to the finish, to provide some estimates. His political contribution (i.e. "modern" Republicanism) is pretty hazy, but as the Chief Executive of the huge Federal corporation and as the leader of the American people, Mr. Eisenhower is today at the peak of his form.

THOSE WHO WORK daily with the President — his White House staffers — express surprise that the press has not commented at length upon Mr. Eisenhower's progress from a willing but uncertain student to the perceptive master of his trade that he has now become.

It is freely acknowledged that the President "had to go to school" on domestic and political matters from the first day that he became a candidate and down through the early years of his tenure. But the critics who dwell on his past unsuccess and not infrequent errors are missing the plot of the Eisenhower story — the difficult, lengthy but successful struggle in the toughest on-the-job training course that there is.

ANYBODY WHO doubts this should watch the President at his next press conference. If it is a typical latter-day performance, the President's excellence will rise and fall with the quality of the questions. Given an intelligent query to work with, one which honestly seeks to discover his viewpoint on a public matter, Mr. Eisenhower will say something of at least passing value, and occasionally something that makes a useful historical commentary on the Presidency.

For instance, he has recently spoken a lot more wisely than his opponents on the reasons why a President should not attend a series of Summit meetings, as suggested by Senator Fulbright and others. Mr. Eisenhower has also reminded his conference, quite correctly, that the Constitution envisions a President's appealing to public opinion in order to obtain legislation, but does not envision a President's harassing and harrassing the Congress in order to put over a program.

INTELLIGENT QUESTIONS draw from Mr. Eisenhower in 1959 the sort of responses which read very well the next morning and which will make sense this time next year. On the other hand, the queries of entrapment or of oversimplification never rise above their original merit. Mr. Eisenhower is too courteous and, in truth, not quick-witted enough to turn a thrust to his own advantage, as Mr. Truman sometimes did.

But rather than quibble at questions which are not soundly premised, the President is apt to grab the answerable part of the query and reply to it. For example, he was recently asked what he thought of the Olympic Games committee's "expelling" and refusing to "recognize" Nationalist China. Instead of both-ering to correct the question, Mr. Eisenhower went to the meat of the query, saying, in effect, that the Olympic committee ought to run the games and stay out of politics.

MR. EISENHOWER'S reputation of being a "weak" President seems to mean that he has not used strong language. After all,

Mr. Truman used the initials of the Senate Office Building pretty freely, and his tirades against the "do nothing" 80th Congress are on record. But Mr. Eisenhower, if weak in words, has been strong when it comes to vetoing legislation, like the over-lobbed natural gas bill, and in insisting upon a pay-as-you-go budget, which he has achieved in most of his fiscal years of office.

Persons near the President say that he showed his mettle as a man of action last summer in landing the Marines on Lebanon and, less happily, in sending the 101st Airborne to Little Rock. In both instances, he showed that he could and would get as tough as anybody.

THE PRESIDENT'S mastery of his job has been gradual and undramatic, and this is the reason why it has gone unremarked. Close associates say that there is no startling "turning point." He is better informed than is generally known. The illness and death of Mr. Dulles and the overseas absence of Mr. Herter have caused the President to make foreign affairs statements which he used to leave to his Secretary of State.

A university economist who came to Washington to head a study of inflation told this reporter that he was amazed (having read the papers) to sit down with the President and hear him discuss a whole range of economic ups-and-downs. The departure of Sherman Adams ("He's very much missed around here," says a White House insider) altered the climate of the ante-rooms, but little else. Adams was a chilly and brusque New Englander. Wilton Persons, his successor, is a warm and leisurely Southerner. But the real change in the White House has been its rise from a school room to something like a high-charged executive suite. —Holmes Alexander.

'Watch the Sides Too'

This Side of The Sun By Phat

Here I sit, not quite biting my nails, wondering when I'll take to the rails.

Up to now I had been patient, but yesterday, at the Union Station to watch a pair of friends shove off for the east, I got that old urge but good—I mean, bad. But I am assured that it won't be long now before all details are completed and I'll be seeing different scenery.

IN THE MEANTIME I have been reading mystery stories. Every moment when not:

a—Keyboarding one of these. b—Trying to entice little blades of grass to grow where none grew before. c—Trying to convince myself that certain candidates for the glue factory can run.

IN FACT, I read so many Whodunits that, last Thursday when I took my weekly venture into the Place of Lakes and Flowers, and saw a noble steed named "Whodunit," I went overboard.

But this "Whodunit" was just like the rest. It didn't finish like I thought it would. If it hadn't been for the more unlikely steeds who did it, I'd be sunk.

MOST INTERESTING item I've read for some time.

A Londoner puts forward a suggestion which, in cases at least, could well be adopted in this country.

This gentleman wants telephone booths designated as certain other public accommodations are: MEN or WOMEN. His arguments are reasonable.

THERE SHOULD be separate telephone booths for men and for women, he sets forth.

"Women occupy phone booths for an average of 20 minutes each," he says, "while most men get their talks over in two or three minutes."

"Think of the time saved if there were 'Men Only' booths."

"Let the women keep each other waiting," he proposed.

ON TELEVISION almost every night there's a brief commercial put on by a telephone company. It shows all of the new inventions to speed telephone calls, soon you'll be able to dial anybody, any place in the nation, some new conveniences every day.

So, instead of stopping at separate booths for men and women, why not go on?

PERHAPS SOME telephone genius can come up with separate circuits for men and women on party lines.

Then, every time you had to make an important call, you wouldn't get in on the tag end of a new recipe, what's new at the supermarket or what Mabel said. All in one 20-minute effort to break through.

Which reminds me of a considerable Palm Springs teenager. She has one of these sand-filled glasses like some people use to time eggs. She spends it when she dials and when the sand is all in the bottom half, hangs up.

Proof that Americans are a tolerant people is shown by the fact that the inventor of the Juke Box died a natural death. (I read that some place.)

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

We have been having a heat wave. I do not know of any news that calls for more journalistic enterprise. And I was glad to see today's reporters get the most out of it.

"THOUSANDS SEEK RELIEF AT BEACHES."

Weather is a fine thing to write about. And the best weather from a writing standpoint is a heat wave. When I was in the verb-and-adjective business, I wrote about heat waves with great passion, if you will pardon a wistful memory.

I AM HAPPY to see the new generation holding up the torch I flung to them with failing hands. Boy, it was hot!

Most people think a heat wave is just hot weather. This is not true. A heat wave is manufactured by the journals.

You do not really know it is hot until you read it next day in the papers.

That is what we call public service.

"HOTTEST DAY SINCE 1891."

YOU COULD SIT around all day, mopping your forehead. But you would not know how hot you were until we told you.

"FIVE COLLAPSE IN HEAT WAVE."

That is the kind of headline that gives you some pride. It shows what you live through—while everybody collapsed around you.

"Everybody talks about the weather, but nobody does anything about it," says the quotation.

NOT SO. WE DO something about it. We write it so you can know how much you suffered and enjoy it. This is very important and shows the Founding Fathers were probably hot as a pistol when they wrote freedom of press into the Constitution.

When I was writing prose for the dailies, I worked for a city editor who was daffy about weather. It was too bad he lived in such an even climate as California. But we did our best to juice up the cool climate with hot type.

"Call up the Weather Bureau."

he would order. "This heat is probably a record."

"HOTTEST JULY 1 since July 1 four years ago," we reported back.

The city editor would then rush in to the managing editor. They would hold a conference and get out the end-of-the-world headline type. Then he would rush back to us.

"Give it everything you've got," he cried. "They'll be collapsing like balloons by afternoon."

AT THIS POINT he would fling several cameramen into the streets. For hot weather pictures. (A cameraman looking for hot weather pictures goes out and gets a beer first. Then he goes to the beach and poses a pretty cup-cake throwing water on another pretty cup-cake. Captioned: "Cooling Off.")

We would then call the emergency hospitals.

"Any heat collapses?"

"Two falling down stairs cases. One squirrel bite."

When we reported this to the editor, he was wild.

"EVEN THE SQUIRRELS are going mad with the heat!" he cried. "Keep it moving! Two women overcome and fell down stairs," he called to the managing editor. "This is likely to be a catastrophe!"

We got the temperature hour by hour. We compared it with other years and other cities. We got EVERYBODY that fell, jumped or was pushed. We collapsed them all with the heat.

BY THE END OF the day we were all worn out. And it wasn't all heat.

By the next day the thermometer had dropped again. But the record was there for everybody to read. It was no easy job. It is probably easier today. But it was hot. Now that I read it in the journals.

Texans Buying Lots

NEW YORK—Persons who don't boast of a yacht should ask their accountants "Why not?"

When Craig Wood presented Toots with a set of woods which turned out to be iron, Bill Morrow said: "Toots'll never know the difference" ... Toots (talking about his "wonderful store" meaning saloon) said: "You're here just to see a saloon-keeper. Nobody comes to see you guys anywhere!"

NEW RECORD

New Liberty EP Blasts 'Top Forty' Radio

Liberty EP Bob Arbogast, who shook up the Southland's video - viewing public with a half-hour show on ABC-TV a couple of years ago, returns to the communal gaze again, teamed — this time — with fellow comic Stan Ross in a hilarious spoof of "those" radio stations that perform for the kiddies.

The medium is a new Liberty 45-EP recording titled "Chaos" and its got announcers who sound like they're running across hot coals, rock and roll music, impossible commercials and — well, just the standard assortment that the "Top Forty" stations purvey.

ALTHOUGH THE RECORD is actually a 14 karat blast at "Top Forty" stations, latest reports indicate that many of them are gobbling this thing up. You might call this good grace unless you were perceptive enough to realize that most of the "Top Forty" stations playing it simply do not realize it is a blast. It has rock and roll music on it, so they'll play it.

In reality, the satire isn't as far-fetched as it might seem at first listen. Even here in the desert — where only four stations perform — you can get a reasonable facsimile of this type of thing without waiting too long.

If you're a consistent listener to radio here in the desert, you're going to agree — avidly, I'd imagine — that only KDES and one other outlet have refused to be stamped into the rush for rock-and-roll, screaming, commercials and the rest of the incense that go with "being" a really commercial station.

THE MORAL OF the recording is breathtakingly simple and yet you'll have more than a little difficulty in convincing anyone who advertises on such media that teen-agers aren't going to buy an awful lot of new cars, new three-bedroom, two-bath homes or new air conditioning units. Bubble gum they'll buy, and also notebook paper for schoolwork and maybe new records and an occasional ticket to the movies.

It's a fun record, a thing that will be very large for party time and other group functions. Unless, of course, you happen to have some coal - walking announcers in your midst.

REAR ADMIRAL JOHN W. GANNON, brother of George Gannon of Palm Springs, has been named commander of the United States Taiwan Patrol Force, effective in July. Prior to his new assignment, he held the job of Assistant Chief of Naval Operations for Fleet Operations.

Admiral Gannon Assigned to Taiwan Post

Rear Admiral John W. Gannon, of Coronado, brother of Palm Springs Realtor George D. Gannon and a frequent visitor here, has received orders to one of the U. S. Navy's key posts in the Far East. In July he becomes Commander, United States Taiwan Patrol Force.

At the same time he will assume the responsibilities as Commander, Fleet Air Wing One. He relieves Rear Admiral Paul P. Blackburn, Jr., who will report to Washington, D. C., for duty.

PRIOR TO HIS new assignment, Admiral Gannon held the job of Assistant Chief of Naval Operations for Fleet Operations. He was selected for the rank of rear admiral on July 18, 1958.

Born in Ashley, N. D., he graduated from the Naval Academy and was commissioned ensign on June 4, 1931, after which he was assigned to his first ship, the Battleship USS Texas. He later attended flight school at Pensacola, Fla., and was designated a naval aviator in 1934.

HE HAS SERVED in both Atlantic and Pacific Fleets, and among other citations has won the Air Medal for meritorious action during World War II.

Admiral Gannon is married to the former Elizabeth Ann Kelly of Santa Monica, and they maintain an official address in Coronado.

Two DHS Groups Offer Contest For Angel View

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Two Desert Hot Springs organizations have joined forces to promote a new child welfare fund program designed to secure aid for the Angel View Crippled Children's Clinic.

Officers of the new fund, created by the Rental Owners Association and the AVCC auxiliary, have planned a contest offering a weekend in Desert Hot Springs.

Chairman Lola Hemingway said first prize is a weekend here for two, including accommodations, meals, swimming theater tickets, gasoline and gift certificates. A second prize is one night in DHS for two, including the various expenses.

Tickets for the contest are now available. The winners will be announced at the Dec. 5 Christmas Bazaar.

Angel View auxiliary officials also announced that their Thrift Shop, operated for the benefit of the clinic, will be open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., daily, through the summer months.

Second in Series Of New Bridge Classes Set

The second in a series of 10 bridge classes begins at 7:30 p.m., today, in the Palm Springs Youth Center, center director Carl Plate reported.

Plate said prospective bridge fans are still able to enroll in the 10-lesson series.

He also announced that the Friday Nites, a junior high school dancing club, will hold an Independence Day dance at the center, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., Friday.

Plate said the summer Youth Center program is attracting more than 125 junior and senior high school age youngsters to the air conditioned center game and club rooms every day.

DARWIN MULLINS

Local Officer Is Police Science Class Graduate

The Palm Springs Police Department was represented last week in the first Police Science graduating class at San Bernardino Valley College in the person of Patrolman Darwin B. Mullins, detective, who has been with the local force since Nov. 10, 1953.

An alumnus of the University of Southern California with the class of '55, Mullins has worked traffic and patrol and is presently assigned to investigation division specializing in worthless check complaints. He was a member of the Trojan track squad during his college career.

"IN LAW ENFORCEMENT," the young officer said, "you have to know a little about a great many things and I decided study was the only way to equip myself properly. The laws a policeman is expected to enforce are very complex and there is no such thing as too much training. Every assignment and problem we have to handle is different."

Mullins was one of five police officers from area departments who completed what is the equivalent of a two-year course to form the college's first graduating class with a degree in police science.

HE COMMUTED TO the San Bernardino school three times per week for four years to accomplish his goal.

Police Chief Gus Kettmann added his congratulations, stating "Mullins' persistence is evidence of his ambition to be a top flight officer. I cannot commend him too highly. He has also been an inspiration to others in the department who are now taking work which will raise the level of their performance — and also their potential for advancement."

Saund Joins Official in Trip To United Nations

Special to The Desert Sun
NEW YORK, N. Y. — Congressman D. S. Saund made a special trip to the United Nations yesterday on behalf of the American people to tell how well this nation is helping in administration of 2,000 islands in the Western Pacific.

Saund joined D. H. Rucker, high commissioner of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, in the latter's annual report before the 13-nation UN Trusteeship Council.

The Riverside Imperial Counties congressman, on assignment for the House of Representative's Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, heard Rucker tell how the three-million square miles of islands — the center of action during World War II — are being rebuilt.

Each year a congressman is assigned to appear with the high commissioner before the UN body.

Group Protests Argentine Action

CATHEDRAL CITY — An official protest against Argentina's policy of denying Jehovah's Witnesses in that country their "constitutional rights of free assembly and worship," was voted this week by the Cathedral City congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Alme Begin, the local congregation's presiding minister, said that in spite of many liberal advancements made by the present Argentine government that ousted the dictatorial Peron regime, a few non-Catholic religious groups that were declared illegal by Peron have yet to be recognized by Argentina's constitutional president, Arturo Frondizi.

Begin said that the more than 6,000 Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina are now circulating a petition requesting recognition under the new, liberal provision of his government, and similar petitions are being prepared in the neighboring countries of Bolivia, Chile, Paraguay and Uruguay.

An inland sea that will stretch 175 miles and cover 1,250,000 acres is being created by the construction of a dam in Kariba Gorge downstream from Victoria Falls in Africa.

Maidhofs Plan 'Huckleberry Finn' Type Trip

A vacation trip "Huckleberry Finn" style is planned this summer by the Bill Maidhof family of 1065 East Sunny Dunes Road.

It's going to start today when they leave Palm Springs for Marion, Illinois, towing a 16-foot fiberglass boat behind their car. That's Mrs. Maidhof's home town and they will spend about three days there visiting relatives before Mrs. Maidhof and their two sons, Steve 9, and Jim 13, get into the serious part of their vacation.

At Cairo, Illinois, they'll put their boat into the Mississippi and the three men of the family will start a cruise to New Orleans, stopping only long enough en route to visit various Civil War battlefields.

Additional fishing is planned in the Biloxi area and bayou country, then down to Galveston, Texas, and then home.

Mary Maidhof will remain at Marion for a few extra days and then she'll meet the rest of her family in New Orleans. From there they'll have several rendezvous spots, with Mr. Maidhof keeping in touch with his wife via a two way radio set up in the boat.

They'll keep spreading the fame of Palm Springs en route, for on the back of the boat will be a sign, "Palm Springs, California."

Total amount of trip time is set for four weeks.

This is an annual event with the Maidhofs, although this is the longest excursion to date. During the past four years they have traveled 15,000 miles by boat.

Mrs. Machris Returns From Ensenada Trip

Elsinore Machris, just back from Ensenada, reported receiving two items of bad news this week.

Her attorney, William L. Murphy of Los Angeles, who helped set up the Desert Press Club here and is an honorary member, suffered a heart attack Sunday morning and is in Huntington Hospital in Pasadena.

And the captain of the ship that burned in Italy, Paul Grade, was a protege of hers and her husband, the late George Machris, and Mrs. Machris had expected to go to Brookfield, Connecticut, for a visit with him and his family in about two weeks.

Present plans of Mrs. Machris call for the triangular trip to Lake Louise, Banff and Honolulu.

Hollands Sailing On Orient Cruise

The Tom Hollands sail July 6 from Los Angeles harbor aboard the President Wilson bound for the Orient. Leisurely shopping and sight seeing with three weeks spent in Japan, are on the agenda before they board the President Cleveland for Honolulu, where they will spend a month at The Breakers.

They will make the return journey aboard the President Wilson docking in San Francisco where they plan a two week stay, before returning to Palm Springs around the middle of October.

Hildy Crawford On Vacation

Desert Sun Society Editor Hildy Crawford is on vacation and is currently at Lido Isle visiting her sister Mrs. Robert F. Wilson. Later this month, Mrs. Crawford and husband Bill will drive north to Reno, where they will be guests of the Ed Robbins on their ranch, and will stop at Tahoe to visit Harold Murphy.

Motoring on to Portland, they will visit his sister Mrs. Olla D. Sharpe and family, returning home along the coast.

Hildy's "Around Town" column will resume publication in September.

A BEAUTIFUL BRIDE was Joyce Forman, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank of Palm Springs, who was married May 30 to Stephen Devron Resnik at Rancho Country Club in West Los Angeles. (Larry Gould Photo).

Joyce Forman Weds Stephen Devron Resnik

Rancho Country Club in West Los Angeles was the setting for the wedding of Joyce Forman and Stephen Devron Resnik. They said their vows on May 30th, the groom's 22nd birthday, before Rabbi Julian Feingold of University Synagogue in Pacific Palisades.

The bride, who has been a frequent Palm Springs' visitor and made her home here with her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank for a year and a half, is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Crass.

She wore a Cahill of Beverly Hills gown of silk organza, princess style, with a Princess Eugenie bodice of scalloped rows of clover. It was short of sleeve and had a Sabrina - Fair neckline and chapel train. Her finger - tip - length veil was held in place by a Queen's crown of seed pearls, and a veil covered her face during the double ring ceremony. Her Colonial bouquet was of philanopsis and lily-of-the-valley.

Bridal attendants were: maid-of-honor, Pauline Ray Kelly of Los Angeles, who was a roommate of the bride at Dominican College; and bridesmaids, Sherry Morris of Palm Springs, and Ronni Joyce Kordell, cousin of the groom, from Fresno. Bridesmaids wore baby pink princess style silk organza dresses, with wreaths of baby roses as headpieces, and carried colonial bouquets of baby pink roses and white gardenias.

Best man to his brother, was Hal Joel Resnik. Ushers were Bruce Hamilton and Ron Grunt, Beta fraternity brothers of the groom, and Rodney Resnik, a cousin.

There was a buffet dinner and dancing and the bride and groom cut a five-tier cake which was served to the 200 guests. Gardenias and baby pink roses decorated the table.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris John Resnik of Northridge, is affiliated with Beta Theta Pi at Stanford, where he graduated with an AB in education on June 14. He will work on a Masters degree at UCLA next fall.

Following a honeymoon trip to Palo Alto (for his graduation) and up north, the Resniks will be at

Scorer Muff Costs Jones No-Hitter

Gilliam's Roller Dropped by Rogers But Scorer Park Rules It Safety

United Press International
Sad Sam Jones missed pitching the second no-hitter of his career by the slender margin of one of those toothpicks he always chews—approximately the same narrow margin that now separates the San Francisco Giants from first place in the National League.

For 7 2/3 innings, Jones turned back the Dodgers without a hit Tuesday night and had visions of duplicating the no-hit, no-run game he hurled against the Pirates as a member of the Cubs on May 12, 1935.

BUT WITH TWO OUT in the eighth, Junior Gilliam wrecked those visions when he beat out an infield roller that was ruled a hit even though shortstop Andre Rodgers had trouble finding the handle on the ball.

That was the only Dodger hit of the game and the Giants won, 2-0, to move within a half-game of the first-place Braves, but Jones was far from happy with the official scorer's ruling.

WITH TEARS STREAMING down his face after the game was over, Jones said bitterly, "As far as I'm concerned it was a no-hitter."

Jones struck out 10 and walked two in gaining his ninth victory against eight defeats. Loser Don Drysdale gave up nine of the Giants' 10 hits, including a two-run homer by Willie Mays. A crowd of 59,392 saw the game in Los Angeles.

CINCINNATI TOPPED Milwaukee, 8-5, Pittsburgh edged Philadelphia, 4-3, and St. Louis defeated Chicago, 4-1, in other National League games.

Cleveland increased its American League lead to two games with a 3-1 victory over Chicago. New York beat Baltimore, 4-1. Detroit blanked Kansas City, 4-0, and Washington licked Boston, 6-1.

TOO MUCH GREEN

Biltmore Winner; To Face Phonemen

The Biltmore Hotel ripped through the Desert Sun - Chi Chi by a 20-0 score at the Polo Grounds last night, prepping for tonight's game with a rejuvenated California Water and Telephone Company team.

The Biltmores play the second game of a double header at 9:25 p.m., tonight, Mexican Colony and Coachella Valley Savings and Loan are slated to meet at 7:30 p.m. in a first game.

IT WAS SIMPLY too much Neal Green last night as the Biltmore pitcher fashioned a two-hit game. He struck out 13 Chi-Sun batters in five innings.

His teammates, meanwhile, were walloping the Chi-Sun team for 11 hits, 11 walks and four errors. The Biltmore took a 7-0 lead in the first frame and after that it was simply a question of degree.

GREEN GOT INTO the hitting act himself, delivering a home run in the fourth inning. Leon Kindy, Biltmore shortstop, also homered for the Biltmores. Sonny Robinson, second baseman, and Charlie Brown, center fielder, had a double and triple, respectively. Green had a no-hit game going for three and two thirds innings. But Sid Erroff lined a single into right in the fourth inning. Don McKinney walked and both runners advanced but died on base. Harry Karuzich drew the other Chi-Sun hit in the fifth inning but was out trying to stretch it into a double.

Line score:

Biltmore 20, Chi-Sun 0. 9 25 p.m. Green and Cross, Kean and Laine.

"CONDITIONING" TEST

Marciano Tour Hints Comeback

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Rocky Marciano will begin test-training next week for a European tour that's expected to include some sparring exhibitions and possibly lead to a comeback, it was learned today.

He'll fly to Europe late this month.

THE 33-YEAR-OLD "Brockton brawler," who retired undefeated on April 27, 1955, has been issuing denials that he plans to return to the ring. It's true: He won't come back if he can't get into satisfactory condition.

He now weighs 220 pounds, almost 32 more than his 188½ when he last defended the world heavyweight crown on a ninth-round knockout over Archie Moore, Sept. 21, 1955.

IF HE CAN PARE down and get "sharp" again, there's a good chance he may challenge next June against the winner of the September return bout between champion Ingemar Johansson and ex-champ Floyd Patterson.

You see, Rocky's long contract with manager Al Weill expired on June 16, and he now can sign his own agreements or get a new manager or advisor. His advisor now is Vic Marsilio of Newark, N. J. — who resurrected Jersey Joe Walcott from the scrapheap but lost him before he became champion.

WHEN ROCKY retired he had the only perfect record of any heavy champ in ring history: 49 straight professional victories, including 43 knockouts. He was a terrific puncher, particularly with the right hand. He was remarkably rugged. He had unusual stamina and an effective bob-weave style.

Should he recapture the heavyweight title, he would be the first man to do it.

Olmedo, MacKay Net Semi-Final Berths

Pair Slated To Vie With Australians

WIMBLEDON, England — (UPI) — The men's semifinals in the Wimbledon Tennis Championships today pitted American Davis Cuppers Alex Olmedo and Barry MacKay against Australian opponents in what was billed as a preview of this year's challenge round matches.

Olmedo, frequently referred to as "Peru's gift to American tennis," met eighth-seeded Roy Emerson, MacKay, the Dayton, Ohio, giant who upset second-seeded Neale Fraser in the quarter-finals, ran into another Aussie southpaw in the person of red-haired Rod Laver.

FRASER, EMERSON and Laver are expected to make up Australia's Davis Cup team which will meet the U. S. in the challenge round at Forest Hills, N. Y., next month — if the Aussies survive the preliminaries.

Olmedo, top-seeded for this latest Wimbledon show, was an odds on choice to demolish Emerson and then become the first South American to win the famed challenge trophy in Friday's final.

Elks-Boys' Club Wallops Indio Tigers by 11-1

INDIO — The league - leading Palm Springs Elks - Boys' Club Colt team walloped the Indio Tigers, 11-1, in a league game marked by a "combination" no-hit game.

Village pitcher Ron Bailey, with a hitless effort behind him, was struck on the hand by a line drive in the fifth inning. J. D. Walton, who relieved him, finished up without allowing any hits.

The Colts meet the Oasis Wildcats at 6 p.m., Thursday, on Indio's Padres Field.

Line score and batteries:
Indio Tigers 601 600—1 6 4
Elks-Boys' Club 101 414—11 11 1
Prior and Caraway, Bailey, J. D. Walton—(5) and J. C. Walton.

CVCA Wins, 14-3 In Pony League

The Village's two Pony League entries split their games last night with the Coachella Valley Contractors Association team winning over Indio Lions, 14-3, and the Palm Springs Giants losing to the Coachella Valley Police by 10-9.

Jay Mead pitched a two hitter for the CVCA team and power hitting by Ernie Reyes and Steve Gottlieb paced a 10-hit attack.

Two homers — One by Joe Shearer, the other by Tom Canilo — couldn't offset the six errors committed by the Giants as they lost a close ball game to the Police team.

SUNAIR

By JEAN PATANE

David Zappe was guest of honor at a patio barbecue dinner and swimming party Saturday, in celebration of his 13th birthday. Highlighting the happy occasion was the decorated birthday cake with various coins hidden inside. Wishing David "Happy Birthday" were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Zappe, his brothers, Dwayne and Stevie, and guests Chris Anderson, Jack Frost, Paul Summers, Joy Svoboda, Dee Bulkeley and Margaret Soran.

Here for the weekend at Sunair Terrace were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wolfe of Noblesville, Ind., who are touring California; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schaefer from Ontario, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Cunningham, Jr., who make their home in Saratoga, Calif. Mrs. Elsie Guenther, international representative of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, who had been a guest at Sunair Terrace for two weeks, left Saturday to visit with her family in Glendale before leaving for Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Oistad and children, Terry, Diane and Kit, returned Sunday night from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Morlen Holte in Downey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Down

(Down's Shoes) and boys, Bob and Dennis, attended the Dodgers baseball game at the Los Angeles Coliseum Saturday night and then went to Disneyland on Sunday and enjoyed the many interesting activities at the famous amusement park.

Over the weekend Mrs. Corinne Davidson and daughter, Margaret, were in San Diego, returning to the Porter Drive home Sunday night.

Mrs. Carl Emerson and son, Johnny, will spend the month of July in San Francisco and Mill Valley. En route they plan on visiting San Simeon. Mr. Emerson is manager of the First National Bank of Coachella. Upon their return Mrs. Emerson and Johnny will spend the balance of the summer in Banning.

Two Area Youths Enlist in Navy

Two Desert area residents have enlisted in the U. S. Navy and are currently undergoing basic training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

They are George William Hughes, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes, Sr., 820 Calle Tomas, and Theodore W. Morgan, son of Mrs. Katherine L. Kennedy, 979 Grove Street, Cathedral City.

Plugging the Gap

NEW YORK (UPI) — Leaky window sashes are just as wasteful in the summer as they are in the winter in air-conditioned homes. To keep the hot air out, caulking compounds are available in fold-up metal tubes. They are easily applied and can be removed in the autumn if desired.

Warning Issued

No Fireworks in Forest

The discharge, possession, sale or offering for sale of any type of fireworks in San Bernardino and Riverside Counties, including the San Bernardino National Forest, is prohibited by state law and county ordinance, according to Donald Bauer, forest supervisor.

"One small spark from fireworks or any carelessly used fire," stated Bauer, "could bring about a serious forest fire with threat of loss of life and destruction of our valuable watersheds and recreation areas."

Forest Rangers expecting even larger crowds than the 300,000 persons who visited the San Bernardino National Forest during the July 4th weekend in 1958, are taking every possible precaution to prevent even the smallest fire from starting.

Persons purchasing fireworks in other areas, including the so-called "safe and sane" fireworks, are cautioned not to transport them into or through San Bernardino or Riverside Counties. Strict enforcement of all fire laws will include confiscation of all fireworks brought into the national forest.

Additional fire patrols including the use of airplanes and helicopters will maintain a constant watch on the forest to insure a safe, enjoyable Fourth of July.
